

2015-16 Highlights

Just for Fun

410+ topics talked about in Brain Wave including the Presidential election, SpaceX, Malala Yousafzai, the Zika virus, Martin Luther King, the Grammy's, Apple, ISIS, the Kentucky Derby, the lunar eclipse, Hailey's Comet, and The Constitution

40+ Words of the Day including gratitude, supercilious, destiny, maniacal, clandestine, and pluralistic

630+ times students climb our stairs each month

3,000 peanut butter & jelly sandwiches

Our Student Members

25% Student Membership Growth

140 high school students

94 new members completed Here to There workshops

94 Game Plans for Life created

24 members completed Job Prep workshop: Job Shadowing at The Ashforth Company, XL Catlin, and Nielsen

1,200 Community Service Hours Completed Since July 2015

Some of the local agencies served include Mill River Park, Inspirica, Fairgate Farm, Person-to-Person, Boys & Girls Club of Stamford, East Side Partnership, Neighbor's Link, and the St. Luke's Hunger Project

70+ Active Coaches & Tutors and an Expanding Volunteer Base

Academic Highlights

29 students participated in year-long College Prep workshop

150+ college acceptances to date

22+ college visits

10 Future 5 alumni who graduated from college including American University, University of St. Joseph, University of Connecticut, and Norwalk Community College

Launched first Math Boot Camp: A two-day math immersion workshop for 10 students during winter break. Student response was very positive and Math Boot Camp will be offered again this summer.

Student Enrichment

Weekly "Say What?" speakers included Kyle Keogh from Google, Miranda Kalinowski from Facebook, Alana D'Angelica and Jackie Roman from Indeed.com, Judy, Pat, and Jessie (the therapy dog) from Hudson Valley Paws for a Cause, Stefan Keller from CT4ADream, Israeli Soldiers, Michael Chambers from The Per and Astrid Heidenreich Family Foundation, State Rep. Caroline Simmons (Stamford), Marc Weber, Owner On the Marc Events, and Kwasi Gyambibi from UConn Stamford's Student Support Services Program.

*as of May 2016

Future 5 helps motivated, low-income high school students in Stamford connect to their full potential.